

Here's a recording of the USCOTS 7/1/2021 breakout session (leaving out the time people were meeting in breakout small groups): https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hCVtjbQv1_Q

BIBLIOGRAPHY

The columns in Teaching Statistics we have at the time of the workshop:

D. Pearl & L. Lesser (fall 2021; in press). Poll position: a sampling of statistical edutainment. Teaching Statistics, 43(3).

L. Lesser & D. Pearl (summer 2021). Statistical edutainment: putting it to the test, Teaching Statistics, 43(2), 92-99. <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/doi/10.1111/test.12262>

D. Pearl & L. Lesser (spring 2021). Statistical edutainment that lines up and fits, Teaching Statistics, 43(1), 45-51. <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/doi/epdf/10.1111/test.12241>

L. Lesser & D. Pearl (fall 2020). Statistical edutainment: Correlation recreation. Teaching Statistics, 42(3), 126-131. <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/doi/epdf/10.1111/test.12228>

D. Pearl & L. Lesser (summer 2020). Statistical edutainment that counts. Teaching Statistics, 42(2), 66-71. <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/doi/epdf/10.1111/test.12219>.

D. Pearl & L. Lesser (spring 2020). Statistical edutainment with confidence. Teaching Statistics, 42 (1), 23-27. <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/doi/epdf/10.1111/test.12213>

Lesser, L.M. & Pearl, D.K. (fall 2019). Statistical edutainment: Reversing comparisons. Teaching Statistics, 41(3), 118-122. <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/doi/epdf/10.1111/test.12203>

Additional references:

<https://www.CAUSEweb.org/fun>

<https://www.causeweb.org/cause/resources/fun/references>

<https://larrylesser.com/statistics-fun/>